

MAY 2020 NEWSLETTER

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

I hope that you are keeping safe during the Coronavirus Pandemic and finding ways to keep yourself busy through lockdown.

I wanted to update you on the situation with our planned shows for 2020, as you know we have a fantastic vision for 2020/2021 and we are still working in the background on some of these things we have planned, however we have made the difficult decision to cancel HAOS Productions show 'Jekyll and Hyde' and HATY's 'Wind in the Willows'.

We have been keeping up to date with the ever changing situation with the virus and we feel that it is going to be difficult to start rehearsals at the beginning of next month as there is no indication that social distancing restrictions are going to be lifted to allow us to work in groups. We had considered virtual ways to do the auditions, however it is just not practical to rehearse in this way. Also, there is no real indication of when the Victoria Theatre or the Playhouse can reopen, particularly in light of the news about live concerts today, and on what basis that would be if social distancing is in place, this may also mean that the shows are not financially viable.

We announced recently the cast for 'Assassins' and we are hoping that this still may go ahead due to this being in the rooms, however we will be continuing to monitor the situation and make decisions at the relevant time.

I want to take the opportunity to thank everyone for their support during this time and we will be back.
